Wedding Yesterday at Camp Meade of Interest.
The marriage of Miss Frances Heald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Clark Heald, to Lieut. William B. Miller, Tank Corps, U. S. A., son of Col. and Mrs. John K. Miller, took place yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed at 4:30 o'clock in the Tank School chapel at Camp Meade by the chief of Army chaplains. Col. John T. Axton, and was followed by a reception in the home of the bride's brother and sister-in-law. Capt. and Mrs. Thomas Jefferson Heald. The decorations in the chapel and in the house were of spring blossoms and greens. The bride wore a gown of white georgette crepe, made on straight lines with a long walst and trimmed with chantilly lace, and a court train of the georgette crepe. Her tulle vell was held by a cornet of chantilly lace with clusters of orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and killes of the valley. Miss Mary Healf was her sisters maid of honor, and wore orchid organdie with a halo of the organdie and carried tea roses. The bride's other attendants were Mrs. Heald, wife of Capt. Heald, Miss Emily Brown, Miss Virginia Brown, Miss Louise Martin, Miss Mercedes Sariel and Miss Dudley Sariel, who wore organdie gowns and halos fashioned after that of the maid of honor, in pastel shades of blue, peach and yellow, and they all carried tea roses.

Lieut, Reginald Hubbell, who graduated with the bridegroom from West Point in 1918, was best man, and the ushers were Capt. William E. Lucas, fr.: Capt. Arthur M. Sheets. Lieut, Redgar B. Heylmun, Lieut. Homer P. Dittemore, Lieut. William T. S. Roberts and Lieut. Albert H. Johnson, all members of the Tank Corps, stationed at Camp Meade.

At the reception after the ceremony Mrs. Heald mother of the bridegroom, received with the bridegroom, received with the bridegroom in shades of yellow.

Later Lieut, Miller and his bride left for a wedding trip, the latter traveling in a gown of blue and gray, with a gray hat trimmed with flowers in shades of yellow.

Later Lieut, Miller an

KEITH'S-Van and Schenck. Good singing of popular airs, whethtrons of vaudeville, and the crowded house at Keith's last night enjoyed a program replete with enjoyable harmony. Van and Schenck, who scored so successfully with the "Follies," are back once more in the field in which voices that carry popular airs over the footlights with a punch that bears the trade mark of a big hit. Time after time they were recalled and the

Another singing act that ran a close second to the topliners is that of Joe Howard and dainty Ethel Clark. Howard was an idol a good many years back, singing his own songs with a beautiful voice, and he is still there with the popularity and a voice that is almost as clear and delightful as in the olden days. This time Joe has little new to offer, but the way the audience applauded "Hello, My Baby," and "Dreaming," demonstrated the effectiveness of the old numbers. Miss Clark appeared with each song in costumes of unusual beauty, and, in addition, gave imitations of "Sally" and other big New York successes. The audience finally allowed the couple to retire after a speech by How-

SPARE THE RINSING AND SPOIL THE CLOTHES

No matter how carefully you have washed your clothes, if you have not rinsed every bit of soap out they will still be yellow. Use a soap that dissolves completely and there is less danger of particles sticking to the clothes to yellow them.

Rinso is an entirely new kind of soap that dissolves instantly, making both water and clothes slippery with its pure, rich suds. It soaks all the dirt out of the clothes so that no hard rubbing is needed to get them spotlessly clean.
Rinso is easier to rinso out than a soap with solid particles to stick to the fabric. But because the rich R in so suds loosen every bit of dirt, very thorough rinsing is necessary to carry off the dirt.
Rinso is rapidly replacing

Dance," for the first time in Washington and for the first time at popular prices, at the Cosmos Theater this week. It is a handsomely staged and costumed offering of exceptional dancing, graceful and eccentric, with interpolated songs, presenting Master and Kraft, assisted by George Pierce, Elsie La Mont, Grace Masters and Mildred Morgan, all performers, and some of them very attractive ones, from the big New York stage.

Another exceptional offering is the Princess Nai Tai Tai, a pretty sprig of Chinese nobility, who was left by her parents in England to be educated for the stage, for which she had a fondness. She won quite as much applause yesterday and last night for her naive speech as for her simply national Friendship Through applause yesterday and last night for her naive speech as for her simply and sweetly sung songs, one of them in Mandarin Chinese. She has beauty almost of the American type, and a charming personality.

Other acts include the Santiago Trio, Other acts include the Santiago Trio, a beautiful offering, combining an artistic Argentine tango, a Spanish dance and some very remarkable athletics; Murphy and Lachmar, in "The Laugh Trust," which is quite enjoyable; Harold Kennedy, a fine eccentric dancer, with a "souse" introduction, which is amusing, and Mack and Barry in an amusing specialty. larry in an amusing specialty.

The photoplay feature is a new and ing "Hoot" Gibson, the new far western actor, as "the singing Kid," in an interesting story, which, with Snub Pollard, in "Days of Old," a very funny screen farce, the Urban Movie Chats, the International News and the Joys and Glooms cartoons, completes a fine bill of entertainment, especially as many of the acts are much above the average popular vaudeville caliber.

STRAND-Mabel Blondell Revue. The Strand Theater this week is Blendell Revue, with the petite Mabel Blendell Revue, with the petite Mabel well to the fore, in a pretentious song and dance extravaganza. The sing-ing is good, the dancing better, and Miss Blondell's imitation of "Frisco" is a big applause winner. Pretty stage settings and costumes contribute much to the act.

Others include the Theodoré Trio, aerialists, in "Comedy Frolics": Fletcher and Pasquale, "Two Sons of Lazz" with according to the product of the stage of the sta Jazz, with accordion and saxophone; Percy Chapman and Elsie Ring, in "The Hired Man," in which clever chatter, topical songs, eccentric dancing are featured, and music extracted from an ordinary carpenter's saw, and Roy La Pearl, billed as "vaude-ville's foremost symmat." and Roy La Pearl, billed as "vaudeville's foremost gymnast."

The photoplay offering pictures Shirley Mason, in her latest Fox production, "Very Truly Yours," with a story of a young hotel stenographer's violent woolng, sudden marriage, subsequent misunderstandings and ultimate happiness. Minor films complete the bill.
